LB 155, 169, 252

is okay. I think it is constitutional. It may not be the most perfectly written bill in the world but then, what the blazes, you know. I can think of a lot of them that are a lot worse written, so if he just wants to lay it over and set it on Final Reading another day until he can get his Attorney General's opinion, I guess it is okay, what the blazes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Is there any objection to laying the bill over? And your suggestion was, Senator Chambers, two days? So ordered then. We will jump back up and take LB 252E. We skipped over that a moment ago since Senator Schmit was gone and I understand it is okay to go ahead on it, 252E.

ASSISTANT CLERK: (Read LB 252E on Final Reading as found on page 1339 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. With the emergency on it takes 33 votes. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: (Read record vote as found on pages 1339-1340 of the Legislative Journal.) The vote is 43 ayes, 1 nay, 4 excused and not voting, 1 present and not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: LB 252 passes with the emergency clause attached. LB 169.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have motions on the desk. The first motion I have is to return LB 169 to Select File for a specific amendment, the amendment being one offered by Senators Kilgarin and Warner and it is found on page 1227 of the Journal.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Kilgarin or Senator Warner, which one is going to speak to this? Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, the motion takes the amendment off that I offered on General File which transferred the equipment books, files, records from the Department of Revenue to here and at the time I offered that it seemed to me that that was a good idea and further thought though it seems to me that if we are going to have anything on the legislative side it probably should be just set up as a part of the Legislature's budget at whatever point it takes effect and I don't think that the transfer as I
